

Intact donates $100,000 to help Alberta residents and communities affected by severe flooding

CALGARY, June 28, 2013 – Intact Insurance is donating $100,000 to the Canadian Red Cross to help support relief and humanitarian efforts for Alberta flood victims. The funds will help provide immediate basic necessities to those in need and contribute to rebuilding flood-ravaged communities in the aftermath of the devastating event.

"We extend our sincere and heartfelt sympathies to our family, friends, colleagues and neighbours who have been impacted by the grave and sudden devastation," said Jennie Moushos, Senior Vice President of Intact Insurance's Western Division. "The safety and well-being of our people 'on the ground' and the communities that they serve is of the utmost importance to us. We commend the courage of volunteers and the generosity of contributors as Canadians demonstrate their willingness to come together to help those in need."
