TORONTO, Nov. 16, 2026 /CNW/ -- Intact Insurance congratulates AFC Toronto on winning the 2026 Diana B. Matheson Cup, defeating the Montréal Roses in the 2026 NSL Final.

The championship caps off an exciting season for AFC Toronto, which finished third in the regular season standings with a 10-9-6 record and conceded a league-low 24 goals. Toronto advanced to the NSL Final with a commanding 8-2 semifinal victory over Ottawa Rapid FC.

Montréal Roses FC delivered an impressive season and championship run, demonstrating the skill, determination and competitive spirit that continue to drive women's professional soccer forward in Canada. Earlier in the season, the club also made history in its first match at Saputo Stadium, defeating Halifax Tides FC 1-0 before 17,077 fans, the largest crowd ever recorded for a Northern Super League match.

"Congratulations to AFC Toronto on an incredible championship and to the Montréal Roses on a memorable season. We are proud to be a founding partner of the Northern Super League and to support the talented athletes who are inspiring fans and helping build the future of professional women's soccer in Canada," said Imen Zitouni, Senior Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer, Intact Financial Corporation.

As a founding partner of the Northern Super League, Intact Insurance has supported the league since its inaugural season in 2025. Intact is also a partner of AFC Toronto, Montréal Roses FC and Ottawa Rapid FC, reinforcing its commitment to growing women's professional soccer and supporting athletes and communities across Canada.
